Scholarship Applications being accepted

Graduating seniors apply for our credit union scholarship. Available to the Michigan college of your choice.

This scholarship is based on credit union membership, intellectual potential, personal integrity, and enthusiasm for learning, or evidence of desire to better humanity.

The recipient will be selected by the Scholarship Committee. He or she may study in any field at any Michigan school, college or university of his/her choice. Scholarship check will be made payable to the college or university of recipients choice to be used to help defray expenses.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Recipient must be a graduating senior from our area school district .
2. The recipient must be a member of the Northern United Federal Credit Union, and remain a member if selected for the scholarship.
3. The recipient must have at least a 2.5 Grade Point average.

Requirements: Submit a brief resume about yourself, your GPA, Class rank, the college you plan to attend, field of study, and what your credit union membership means to you. Applications must be returned to the Credit Union Office by May 8th, 2015.

The scholarship winner will be announced at graduation, and check will be made payable to the school you plan to attend. GOOD LUCK SENIORS! .

Thank you, and congratulations to our employees for the following years of service. We couldn't provide quality member service without you!
